N-I Band

Under the direction of W. B. Myhrum, the N-I Band is small but spirited. Augmented by three Ellendale High School players, the Band performed throughout the year at athletic contests and added considerably to the pep displayed by the student body. Aside from its public performances, the Band purposes to develop musical ability and appreciation in its members.

N-I Chorus

Directed by C. Wesley Christian, the N-I Chorus presents programs on such occasions as Thanksgiving and Christmas and also serves as a practical activity for students taking training in public school music. The big event of the year was the Christmas presentation of selections from Handel's "The Messiah" by the combined College and Community Chorus (below). Mrs. Jessie H. Dunphy accompanied the group.

C. W. CHRISTIAN
Director

The Industrial Arts Club opened the year's activities with a card party in the Dustie Den Lounge. Later in the year the annual Open House, at which projects are displayed and door prizes awarded, drew a large crowd from the college and the community.

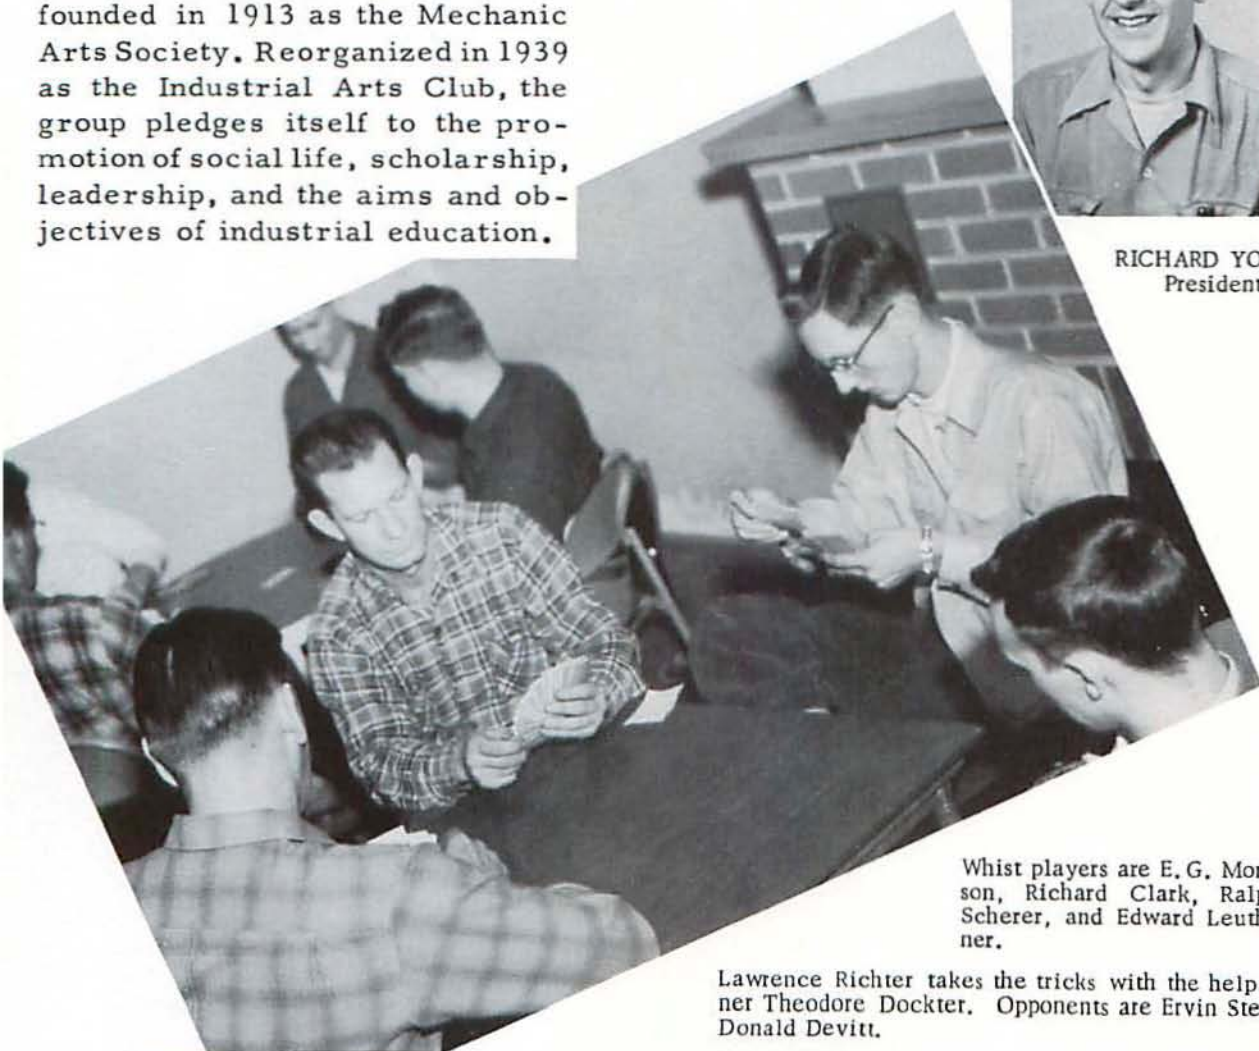

Among those enjoying the party were Richard Young, John Benson, S.D. Slemmons, and Edward Muckenhirn.

Industrial Arts Club

The parent organization was founded in 1913 as the Mechanic Arts Society. Reorganized in 1939 as the Industrial Arts Club, the group pledges itself to the promotion of social life, scholarship, leadership, and the aims and objectives of industrial education.

RICHARD YOUNG
President

Whist players are E. G. Monson, Richard Clark, Ralph Scherer, and Edward Leuthner.

Lawrence Richter takes the tricks with the help of Partner Theodore Dockter. Opponents are Ervin Stepina and Donald Devitt.

Duane Heitzmann, Janeen Hauser, Gerald Nelson.

Members of the YMCA and YWCA, their advisers and guests enjoyed a chicken dinner at their annual Christmas party. Many meetings were such joint events, with the two groups pooling their resources in helping to sponsor the World Student Service Fund drive and in sending delegates to regional conferences.

Janice Tusow, Ray Hollan, Ann Hillestad, Ray Fiechtner.

The YMCA was founded on the N-I campus in 1908. Its purpose is to provide friendly surroundings for men students, to lead them to know God, and to grow in Christian faith and character.

Ronald Brost, Nadine Fox, Avis Flom, Donald Devitt.

Future Teachers of America

All students who are preparing to teach are eligible for membership in the Future Teachers of America, an organization pledged to better prepare teachers for their profession. The FTA is the latest professional addition to the campus, having been founded in the spring of 1950. The N-I chapter is named for O.E. Combellick, head of the Education Department from 1913 to 1949.

EDNA IRION
President

Vonne Nockleby, Nellie Devitt, Ardys Anderson, Virginia Schultz, Elaine Karas, Marilyn Meyer, Lois Bentson, Ruth Fritch.

Alphian Society

Founded in 1906 as a literary society, Alphian now aims to help girls become better acquainted socially and intellectually and to become adjusted to their environment outside the college. Officers this year were Marilyn Meyer, president; Virginia Schultz, vice-president; Nellie Devitt, secretary, and Violet Chelgren, treasurer. Miss Ruth Fritch served as the faculty adviser.

MARILYN MEYER
President

Standing: George Schempp, Robert Gaukler, Herbert Bertsch, Harlan Scherer, Ervin Stepina.

Lettermen's Club

To build a better athletic program and to show how sports play an important part in the physical and mental development of students is the aim of the Lettermen's Club. The club awards jackets to members who earn three letters in one sport. Highlighting this year's activities was a banquet in the Home Economics Department.

Football 1951

Coach Wally Klein's third N-I football team was the equal of any in the conference, but tough breaks caused them to lose two close games in four. The Dusties piled up 63 points to their opponents' 25 and landed in fourth place in the nine-team conference. Fred Retzlaff led his mates in scoring with 24 points from his fullback position.

Dickinson's Savages, eventual conference co-champions, had two scoring chances against the Dusties Oct. 5 and made both of them good to defeat the Dusties, 13-6. The N-I had numerous scoring opportunities, but made only one of them, a 67-yard romp through the entire Dickinson team by Fullback Fred Retzlaff. The other Dustie loss came at Jamestown Oct. 19 where the Jimmies took a 6-0 victory, their first against the N-I in six years, by scoring early in the first quarter and staving off Dustie drives with fine punting the rest of the evening. Sandwiched between those defeats, the Dusties romped over Bismarck Oct. 12 by a score of 32-0, with Casey Pierce scoring two touchdowns, Eddie Leuthner getting a touchdown and kicking two extra points, Retzlaff adding a touchdown, and Danny Slemmons tossing a pass to Ted Dockter for the final tally.

Exploding for three touchdowns in the final quarter, the Dusties turned a tight, bitterly-fought game into a decisive victory in their last game of the season by whipping the Wahpeton Wildcats, 25-6, before a happy Homecoming throng Oct. 27. Wahpeton drew first blood in the second quarter, but the Dusties came right back on a fumble play which sent Darwin Whelan scampering 20 yards for a touchdown. Eddie Leuthner ran for the extra point that put the N-I ahead. In the final period Leuthner played a major role in all three touchdowns. He ran 10 yards for the first one, lateralled to Fred Retzlaff for the second, and tossed a pass to Eddie Muckenhirn who lateralled to Ted Dockter for the third.

Twenty-six members of the 1951 football squad earned letters for their season's work. They were Co-Captains Darwin Whelan and Jim Mooney, Eddie Muckenhirn, Harlan Scherer, Del Altmann, Eddie Leuthner and Floyd Mattheis, seniors; Herb Bertsch, Jack Benson, Fred Retzlaff, Vic Steinwand, Ralph Scherer, Bob Gaukler and Casey Pierce, juniors; Ervin Stepina, Dick Brown, Maynard Ketterling and Lawrence Richter, sophomores; Danny Selmons, Ted Dockter, Don Bock, George Schempp, Bill Pfeifer, Paul Hample, Floyd Jensen and Cliff Bergland, freshmen.

Basketball 1952

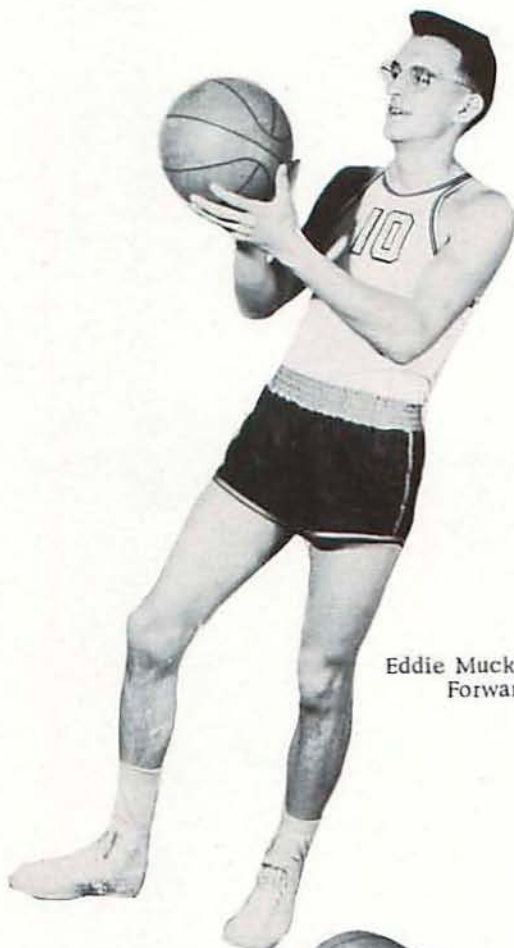

After a slow start, during which they dropped their first nine games, the Dusties developed into one of the strongest basketball teams in the conference, knocking off the eventual champions and winning six of 14 loop games. With only two veterans back from his 1951 team, Coach Senn Slemmons put together a first five to equal any in the league.

Among the highlights of the season were five over-time games, of which the Dusties won two and lost three. They lost a 66-63 extra period contest at Dakota Wesleyan on their first road trip, then exchanged a quartet of overtime games in conference play. They started the exchange right by tripping Minot, the eventual conference champions, 62-61 at Minot, then returned home to lose a 60-58 overtime tilt to Bismarck. They registered a 77-72 victory at Valley City in two extra periods, but lost another overtime game at home to Dickinson, 65-64. The irony of it all is that the Dusties came from behind to win both overtime games away from home and lost both home overtime contests after enjoying leads of 10 to 12 points in the final quarter each time.

Ten players earned letters in basketball. They were Captain Eddie Muckenhirn, Del Altmann, Jim Mooney, Eddie Leuthner and Harlan Scherer, seniors; Ralph Scherer, junior; Elmer Wolff, sophomore; Danny Slemmons, Chuck Stengel and Ted Dockter, freshmen. Muckenhirn was the scoring ace for the N-I, counting 345 points in 21 games over the season for an average of 16.4 per game, and scoring 235 in 14 conference tilts for a 16.7 average, landing in fourth place in the loop in both categories. Altmann scored 257 in 22 games and 195 in the conference, averaging 11.7 and 15.3. Mooney scored 238 for all games and 161 in the conference, Leuthner had 151 and 109, and Slemmons added 153 and 91. In winning six of 22 games, the Dusties scored 1256 to their opponents' 1336. In conference play the N-I counted 847 against 856.

Track 1951

With three of last year's five lettermen on hand for another season, Coach Senn Slemmons is looking forward to a successful record for his Dustie track squad this spring. Murray Brown, Fred Retzlaff and Lawrence Richter are back to take care of the hurdles, weights, jumps and distance runs, but the N-I will miss Don Murgatroyd and Kirby Knox in the pole vault. In seven tough meets last spring the Dusties scored 120 1/30 points, placing third in the Dakota Pentangular and Conference meets and fourth in the State Intercollegiate.

Don Murgatroyd, one of the top pole vaulters in the Northwest, was handicapped by a leg injury that bothered him throughout the season and prevented his placing in the Conference meet, but he managed to pile up 22 7/10 points in four meets and capture his specialty in the State Intercollegiate at the University of North Dakota with a 12-foot leap. His beat mark was a 12 ft. 3 in. effort at Jamestown May 19, seven inches better than the previous N-I pole vault record. Murray Brown, the latest in a long string of all-around stars for the N-I, scored 39 1/4 points in six meets and capped his performance by winning the Conference shot put championship and the State Intercollegiate high point medal. He scored during the season in the shot, javelin, broad jump, high and low hurdles, counting 12 points in four events at the state meet for high point honors.

Fred Retzlaff was consistently one of the best discus throwers in the state, scoring $29 \frac{1}{4}$ points through the season. He placed in the Corn Palace and Aberdeen Relays, won the discus in the Dakota Pentangular and Conference meets and placed second in all other meets, besides picking up a few points in the shot and 440-yard dash. Lawrence Richter scored 12 points in the two-mile run during the season, placing in all meets and taking second in the Conference. Kirby Knox accounted for $12 \frac{1}{3}$ points in the pole vault, placing in the Aberdeen Relays and landing in a three-way tie for first at the Conference, besides gaining a tie with Murgatroyd for first at the Dakota Pentangular. Erwin Stepina and Lee Eklund scored $2 \frac{1}{4}$ each for the Dusties during the season, Stepina's points coming in the mile run and Eklund's in the high hurdles.

Activities

MARILYN MEYER
Queen of the 1951 Roundup

Sponsored by the Industrial Arts and Home Economics Departments, Queen Marilyn won over three other candidates, all of whom became her attendants. They were Virginia Schultz, candidate of the Lettermen's Club; Nadine Fox, sponsored by the Junior College; and Avis Flom, Education Department candidate.

The N-I's first Homecoming Queen, Marian Hubbard Townsend, presents the Queen with her symbol of office, a blacksnake whip.

As master of ceremonies at the pepfest, Francis Gibson distributed prizes to all contest winners. Ray Feichtner, Martin Steinwand, Janice Tusow and Nellie Devitt won costume awards.

Herb Bertsch was named Whisker King for the second time in three years, while Dean Bartle won his second title as Beardless Baron.

C. W. Christian led the audience in Roundup songs.

Coach Wally Klein introduced the members of his football squad. The Gibsons Brothers, with assorted helpers, put on two musical skits.

The bonfire and snake dance terminated the evening's activities.

Cowboys led the parade Saturday morning, October 27.

The American Legion and the Ellendale High School Band provided color and music.

The Queen and her attendants rode on a special float.

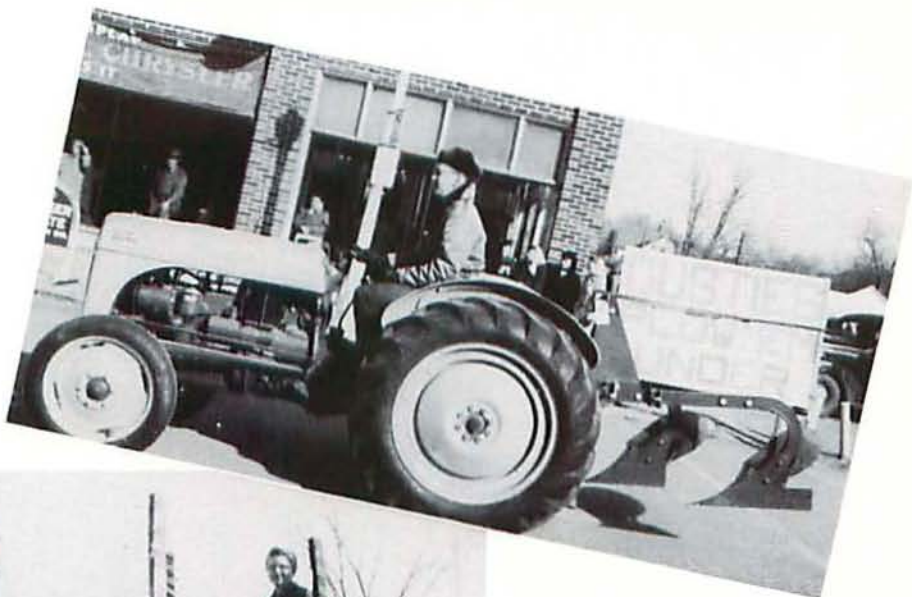

Winning float was the entry of the South Trailer Camp, showing students' wives "Pushing Hubby Through."

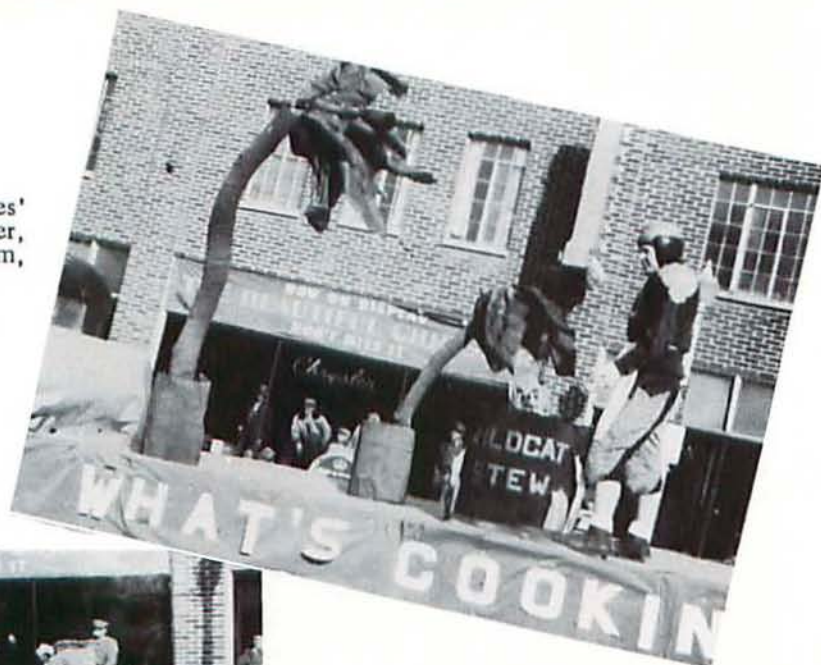

A cowboy "breaking" a mechanical wildcat won second prize for the Industrial Arts Club. Third prize went to Dacotah Hall's girls for lassoing a wildcat.

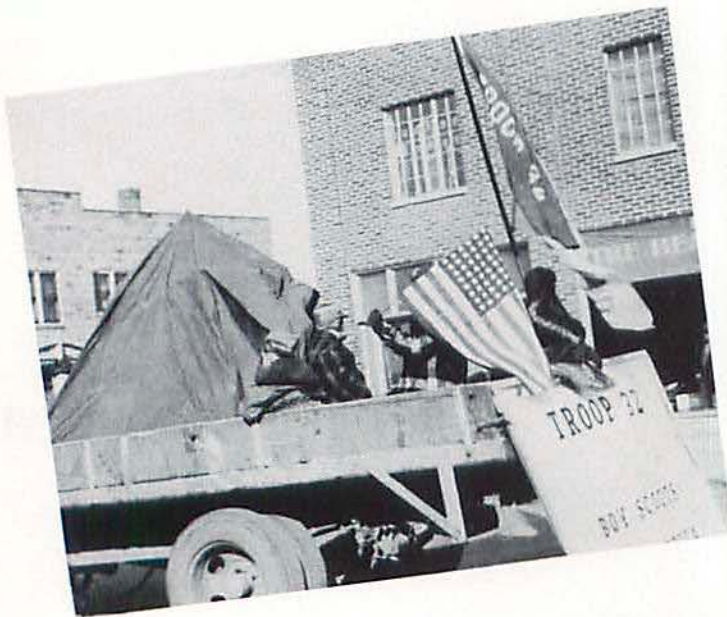

Sixteen floats entered the parade, along with the Legion Color Guard, the Ellendale Band, and the cowboys and cowgirls.

The floats promised, on the Dusties' behalf, to plow the Wildcats under, to knock them out, to stew them, and to play fair in so doing.

Besides the winners, floats entered in the parade represented the Business Department, Education Department, Junior College, Alumni, N-1 Players, Newman Club, Alphians, Women's Athletic Association, Chorus, Future Teachers of America, YMCA, YWCA, and the Ellendale Boy Scouts.

The football players rode in style.

President McMillan presented the Queen at the Victory Dance, climaxing the Dusties' 25 to 6 victory over the Wildcats.

Nearly 200 seniors from 17 high schools attended the N-I's first annual Senior Day last spring. Events included an afternoon program, tours of the campus, a banquet, and a dance. Martin Steinwand (right) presided at the banquet in Dacotah Hall and also at the program in Carnegie Hall.

Because of crowded facilities, two banquets were held--one in Dacotah Hall and the other at the Methodist Church. A sextet from Ellendale (above) entertained the guests at the church.

Another sextet from Zeeland (above) and Robert Albert of Jud (below) also entertained at the banquet at the church.

Decorations were made by art students of Mrs. Ruth S. Randolph. An Oriental garden was the theme, with dragons and landscapes covering the walls.

Pat Lamp of Nortonville, one of the senior guests, joined Fats Carlson's Band for a number during the dance, making a big hit with the crowd of 350.

Each school nominated candidates for King and Queen, with elections being held during the banquets.

At the dance, President McMillan crowned the winners, Mavis Hanson of Nortonville and James Peterson of Monango, Queen and King of Senior Day, following a grand march of all the candidates.

Horsager in 1951. Shortly thereafter, he was drafted into the Army and served a tour of duty in Korea where he received the Bronze Star for Meritorious Service.

Upon returning from Korea, Buzz and Harriet made their home in Bowman for 13 years, where all three of their children were born. Buzz was a coach, teacher and administrator at Bowman Public Schools for those 13 years and received his master's degree from Northern State College in Aberdeen, S.D. during that time.

Buzz and Harriet then moved to Dickinson where he was the Supervisor of Student Teachers and Associate Professor of Education at Dickinson State University for 23 years. During his time at DSU, Buzz was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges. Buzz is best remembered for his interest and connection with his students, each one held a special place in his heart.

Buzz was actively involved in the community including Rotary, NEA-NDEA, Retired Teachers, Blue Hawk Boosters and United Way. He was the past president of North Dakota Association of Secondary School Principals, Southwest Secondary School Principals, Legion Post Commander, Dickinson Elks Quarterbacks Club and Methodist Men's club. Buzz enjoyed hunting, woodworking, community service and attending sporting events.

Buzz is survived by his wife Harriet; daughter Stacy (John) Bang of Killdeer, son Casey (Mary) Whelan of Maple Grove, Minn. and daughter Cheri (Errol)

Schoenfish of Fargo; nine grandchildren, Jason, Heidi and Haley Bang; Patrick, Lucas and Julia Whelan, Miranda, Tucker and Colter Schoenfish; one great-grandchild Gavin Bang; two sisters Delia Schweitz of Napa, Calif. and Virginia Thorpe of Riverside, Calif. He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers and three sisters.

Memorial donations in Buzz's honor may be made to the Dickinson State Alumni Foundation, United Methodist Church or United Way. Arrangements are with Ladbury Funeral Service, Dickinson.
